Where can I find a good, cheap cat tree/ cat condo?

I am getting a cat soon and I would like to know where I can find a cheap playhouse/scratching post. She will be an indoor only cat (with the exception of being on a leash outside) so I need to provide her with plenty of stimulation, scratching posts, toys, and safe things to climb on. Where can I find or make these things for cheap?

PetEdge and Drs. Foster Smith online both have some really cute cat trees that are well priced. Shipping's a bit high but they still end up being substantially cheaper than buying one at PetSmart or Petco whose prices are pretty ridiculous.

I have four cats and I don't have a cat tree. I have two scratching posts and a couple of sisal scratchers that hang on door knobs. So you don't necessarily have to get them the big tree to scratch on. Those take up a lot of space.
